Kingdom-training for a new generation
to be positioned in the cities of Europe

A new and finishing generation

There is a new and strong reformation on the way. The process is generated by a revival of the Word and of the Spirit. It will not bring us back to the Reformation, but back to the Acts of the Apostles... its dynamics, foundation and building-patterns. This sovereign work of God will have the power to clean up and re-align God's House. It will not build on few verses, on a single revelation or on miracles, or gifted personalities. There will not be a new Luther, a new Calvin or Huss... or for that sake a new Evan Roberts or Kathryn Kuhlman. There will be tens and hundreds, even thousands of them.

This move will be carried, facilitated and accelerated by this new company of reformers. They stand on strong Godgiven convictions built on current truth and they are therefore courageous and focused. They are wild and mild. They are set on track and therefore qualified to carry the legacy from their spiritual fathers. They are determined and unstoppable. They don't align with hierarchies and ignore religious powerplay. They are resistant to ecclesiastical political correctness. They don't play after other rules and agendas than the ones God himself dictates. Because now... He is in charge and will stay in charge until the nations are affected by the Kingdom!

Re-conquering, re-ordering and re-positioning

God is not only re-conquering his Church, he re-orders and re-positions her. One of the greatest paradigmshifts in church-history happens now. We are walking in this shift which generates a phenomenal freedom from the cocktail of charismatic mess and religious legalism and humanistic performance. Almost everything has to be redefined because almost everything was contaminated by soulishness, greed, power, human agendas... churchianity.

Therefore the re-conquering and then re-ordering. Those who are courageous enough to let God re-define them will be built together into a new House, the church of the future, the Kingdom Church. She will be positioned to re-conquer lost territory. Europe is the Lord's, its fullness and inhabitants. The battle of Europe has begun!

Accuracy and intensity are 2 major Kingdom-values. Therefore we go for a short time with intensity and focus to produce lasting transformations. The teaching will be in English and people from all over Europe are welcome.

There is nothing like this in Europe!

The dates are March, Monday the 15th to Wednesday the 24th, 2010 in Herring, Denmark.

Arrival and registration Monday the 15th and departure Thursday the 25th.

A Revival of the Word and the Spirit

When these 2 elements melt together, everything can and will happen. There are places where teaching is a high priority but the level of the Spirit is low... and it produces our time's rabbis. There are also places where there is a strong focus on spiritual inspiration and manifestations but the level of accurate and current revelational truth from the Word is low... and it produces anemic and weird Christians.

SoAR will take you into a God-encounter which will release both Word and Spirit into you in a unique way.
